How to play on paper

1. Cut along the dashed lines and shuffle the cards face down.
2. Give everyone a pen and some paper, and print the score sheet or draw one.
3. One person reads a card out. Everyone writes an answer in secret, then you all reveal together.
4. Everyone who wrote the most common answer ticks a cow on the score sheet.
5. If exactly one player wrote an answer nobody else did, they take the Odd One Out card. Nobody can win while holding it.
6. First to eight cows wins.

Cut along the dashed lines. Cards print black on white, eight to a page, with the pack name in the top corner of each card.

Score sheet

Tick a cow each time you match the herd. First to eight cows wins, but not while holding the Odd One Out card. For more than ten players, print this sheet twice.

Player	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	Odd one out

Odd One Out

You gave the only answer nobody else wrote. You cannot win while this card is in front of you. It passes to the next player who is the only odd one out in a round.

Cut along the dashed line.
